Commerce Department Announces New Public Information Officer Appointment

"Move for PIO to GOED necessitates change for Commerce PIO position"
(For immediate release...)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah – Francine Giani, Executive Director of the Utah Department of Commerce, announced today the immediate appointment of Jennifer Bolton as Public Information Officer.

Bolton, of Cottonwood Heights, worked at ABC4 News - KTVX for close to ten years as a news reporter and producer of "On the Record with Chris Vanocur". During her tenure at KTVX, her work was nominated for an Emmy award and she was the recipient of several Utah Broadcaster Awards. Bolton replaces Clark Caras who moved to the Governor's Office of Economic Development.

"I am confident that Jennifer's ten years of local media experience and professional background will be invaluable to our team at the Department of Commerce and to the people of Utah," said Giani.

Jennifer Bolton holds a bachelors degree in Mass Communications from Marymount University in Arlington, Virginia. She also completed an internship at CNN News – London, England while attending classes at the Roehampton Institute.

Bolton and her husband, Craig Britter, reside in Cottonwood Heights.
